"Students are well behaved. They are treated as individuals and with respect. There is a really good atmosphere in college for students and staff. I feel appreciated as a member of staff and feel that my skills and experience are being utilised and recognised." Staff Questionnaire May 2025

DESIGN TECHNOLOGY TECHNICIAN

32.5 hours a week, term time only plus one week

Salary: £19,180 p.a.

Immediate start available

Closing date for applications: 9am, Monday 13th October 2025

The DT department at Freman College consists of a Food Technology classroom a fully equipped workshop and an IT suite and was fully refurbished in 2020. We teach Resistant Materials to GCSE and A level and Food Preparation and Nutrition to GCSE.

This, sometimes demanding physical role, is to support across both subjects and is consequently varied. You will be weighing out ingredients for a food practical one minute and cutting up wood the next. So being of a practical nature is imperative.

You must be willing to train to a Level 2 in Food Safety and undertake a DATA accredited Corte Health and Safety training course.

Freman College is an oversubscribed upper school with around 1,050 students in years 9 – 13, including around 280 students in the Sixth Form.
